Our street cred

Our associates…

- Have more than 200 combined years of professional experience in publishing.
- And in publishing technologies, too.
- Several are certified in Adobe and Microsoft products.
- Have accessibility at heart. Some have disabilities or have family members with disabilities.
- Have taught accessible documents since 2001.

We are…

- Teachers
- Writers and editors
- Programmers
- Designers
- Experts for government, commercial, and academic publishing
- Technologists
- Management specialists
- Accessibility experts

We like to work ourselves out of a job

It’s true.

We want to train and advise you so well that you become fully adept at making accessible documents and don’t need us again.

That’s our goal.

- Drop us a line when you want to fish.
  Or make accessible documents.
  Tell us how we can help.
